

Wilson's School Maths Circle

Synths, the Universe and doodling

DR PHIL RAMSDEN

Imperial College Faculty of Natural Sciences, Department of Mathematics, Director of Cross-Curricular Mathematics Education

March 18 2024, 4 – 5 pm

The JJ Hall, Wilson's School

What connects sixteenth-century arguments about astronomy and cosmology, the structure of your inner ear, electronic music and a clockwork doodling machine?
